C. R. WING

A story in three parts

"C. R." was born in Lehi, Utah. His parents were among the first Mormon settlers in Utah, his mother pulled a hand-cart with one of the earliest companies and his father made the first of his even trips across the plains at the age of 15. The pioneering spirit of his parents was passed on to this man who has devoted his life to the sugar industry and his church.

His start, in 1903 in the sugar industry came about through his having the courage of his convictions. While helping his father, who supplied the mill at Lehi with lime rock, he had a difference of opinion with the plant superintendent, a stern, unyielding man—because he refused to be taken advantage of while unloading rock he was ordered off the mill property, never to even step on it again. For a short time he hauled rock to the edge of the property and had his father take it in for unloading. He still had the courage to ask for a job at the plant only to be refused in no uncertain manner. Because of the good work done in helping his father, the superintendent finally sent for "C.R." and offered him a job which started his long career as a "sugar tramp". He finished his schooling while working for this company.

In 1907 he took a position with the Utah Idaho Sugar Co., a pioneer firm, and moved to Napa, Idaho where he worked until the mill closed down in 1909, because of the damage done to the beets by the infectious White Fly. He went to Lehi in the spring of 1908 and was married on April 8. It was while in Napa that Mr. Wing took his first church position, being secretary of the Y.M.M.I.A. and has never been without a job in the church since. The Mormons were not kindly received in Napa but through the efforts of a fine choir this resistance was broken down. The branch established there was in the North Western States Mission under Pres. Pratt. After a series of transfers, to Garland, to Sugar City and back to Garland he was sent to Brigham City where a new mill was built. In 1917 "C.R." was chosen as a member of the party sent to Yakama, Wash. to pioneer the industry in that area. Two weeks after they arrived there, Pres. Melvin J. Ballard organized a branch of the church under the leadership of Charles Edwards, John Lewis, Heber C. Hart, Ben Haliday, Will Gough and Horace Hoffinden (all connected with the sugar industry). After three years the mill was closed due to crop failure, again traceable to the effects of the White Fly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wing went to Sunnyside, Wash. where the finest available equipment was put into a plant that was later closed down, again due to the White Fly. This equipment was moved here to Raymond. Upon leaving Sunnyside, "C.R." went to Elinore, where he was actively engaged in M.I.A. recreational work and Scouting, to be superintendent of the plant there for five years before being moved to Chinook, Montana. He stayed at Chinook, helping to supervise the construction of the plant there until 1925 when he came to Raymond where he, last week, finished his long and distinguished career.

I've taken my work as I found it. I've travelled the route here and there. I've worked with all kind of "Bosses". Some were good, some were poor, some were fair. Some were fat, some were tall, some were short, some were thin. And I've watched how they've handled their factories. But I've learned about "Supers" from Wing.

He's a gentleman first, last and always. To the feminine heart—he's a dear. He can spot from a distance of one hundred yards. An ankle that's shapely and trim. He can improvise tools, engines or shim. Whether women or sugar or shuffling cards. I've learned about living, from Wing.

This is one of the tributes paid to C. R. Wing last Monday evening in the beautifully decorated Opera House when a testimonial party was held in his honor. The highlight of the evening was when orchids were presented to Mrs. Wing and the license plates and keys of a beautiful new Chevrolet were given to Mr. Wing.

The highly entertaining program was conducted by Kay Redd and included the following numbers: O Canada; Invocation by Bishop J. G. Snow; Community singing conducted by Joseph McLean; Address of Welcome by F. R. Taylor; two beautiful violin solos by Hugh Laycock accompanied by Kathryn Keeler; a Male Quartet singing an original composition, "I've Been Working at the Factory" (tune of "I've Been Working on the Railroad") by the First Ward Bishopric; a piano duet by Barbara Wing Taylor and Pat Strong; a delightfully humorous imitation of Victor Borge and his phobic punctuation by Leonard Isaacson; Vocal solo by Joseph McLean accompanied by Mrs. Emma Dahl. Presentations were made by T. George Wood and Robert Boyd of Vancouver who represented the Co. president, P. T. Rogers, with response by Mr. and Mrs. Wing. The program was concluded by singing "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow".

A lunch and a dance completed the evening.

Mr. Wing has been very active in L.D.S. church work most of his life. Here in Raymond he has held many responsible offices, such as Stake President of the M.I.A., associated with Louis Brandley, Irwin Fawns, W. C. Stone, Solon Low, Carl Dahl and many others. He served on the Stake High Council under Pres. H. S. Allen and as First Councillor to Bishop Hicken in the First Ward Bishopric in 1936, Bishop J. Golden Snow was Second Councillor. In 1939 the First Ward chapel, which is a joy to all, was built under the guidance of these men. At the division of the Wards he was appointed Pres. of the Stake High Priest's Quorum. Mr. Wing also served as a missionary for 27½ months in Britain.

On December 31, 1925 C. R. Wing and Viola Allen were married and have raised a fine family of two daughters and three sons.

In summing up his life's work, Mr. Wing said that many happy hours had been spent in both the sugar industry and the church.

The Raymond Recorder joins the multitude in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wing happiness and long life.

ROTE SPOKES

Phil Lovejoy

District No. 171 has been signally honored in having been visited by Rotary's International Secretary, Phil Lovejoy.

On February 25 he attended the International Goodwill Meeting at Winnipeg, Man., and on February 27th he visited the Lethbridge, Alta. club. At both these places he delivered a very inspiring address on Rotary and won a great many new friends. We regret Phil was unable to extend his visit to other clubs in the District. However, a delegation from Raymond attended at Lethbridge.

Here and There

For 18 years the Rotary Club of Blackburn, Eng. and the Rotary Club of Griffin, Georgia, have been in regular correspondence contact and have advanced along the road of International Service.

On Dec. 10th, Derek Turpin, a science student, left Blackburn for a one year study at Georgia University at the invitation of the Rotary Education Foundation of Atlanta, in co-operation with the Griffin Club.

Rotary Today

6,978 Clubs, 334,000 Rotarians. 154 new clubs in 29 countries since July 1st 1949.

We are pleased to welcome South Edmonton Club, admitted to membership in R. I. February 24th, 1950.

Bank Changes

J. F. GRANT

New manager of the Bank of Montreal's Raymond office is James F. Grant, in charge of the bank's Magrath branch for the past two and a half years. He succeeds Arthur C. King, manager here since 1944, who takes charge of the B of M's office at Olds.

Mr. Grant is no stranger to Raymond, having been a member of the local curling club during the 1948-49 season. Born at Brandon, Man., he began his banking career there in 1915, and later served at numerous branches in western Canada, including Winnipeg, Portage la Prairie, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon. He received his first managerial appointment at the bank's Waldron, Sask., branch in 1929, and later held similar posts at St. Benedict, Sask., and Myrnam, Rimbey, Viking Daysland and Magrath, whence he comes to Raymond.

Won Magrath 'Spiel

The new manager has always taken a keen interest in sports and in community affairs wherever he has been stationed. While in Magrath, Mr. Grant served as director of the Lions Club, chairman of the finance committee of the Red Cross, and was a member of the golf club there. Last winter, when Magrath had its own curling rink, Mr. Grant skipped the foursome that won the club's initial bonspiel.

Mr. King, his predecessor, was born at Oak Lake, Man., and joined the B of M at Armstrong B.C., in 1915. He has served at numerous branches of the bank, from Winnipeg to the West Coast, including those at Edmonton, Prince Albert and North Battleford. Mr. King received his first managerial appointment at the bank's Fife Lake, Sask., branch in 1936, and later held similar posts at branches at Oakville, Man., and Duck Lake and Eastend, Sask., whence he came to Raymond nearly six years ago.

During his stay here Mr. King was active in local sporting and community activities. He was secretary and, later, president of the Rotary club as well as vice-president of the Curling Club.

"EXODUS"

"There is no parallel in the World's history to this migration from Nauvoo. The exodus from Egypt was from a heathen land—a land of idolaters to a fertile region designated by the Lord for his chosen people—the land of Canaan. The Pilgrim Fathers fleeing to America came from a bigoted and despotic people—a people making no pretense of religious or civil liberty. It was from these same people who had fled from old world persecutions that they might enjoy liberty of conscience in the wilds of America—from their descendants who claimed this right to differ from them in opinion and practice, were now fleeing the Mormons. Before this the Mormons had been driven to the outskirts of civilization where they had built themselves a city. This they must now abandon and throw themselves upon the mercy of savages."

The story of this pilgrimage is dramatically told in the Cantata, "Exodus" which will be produced by local talent in the Stake House Easter Sunday at 7:30 P.M. All are welcome—no collection.

The music for this cantata was composed and arranged by C. F. Tollestrup who also wrote the music for "Moroni the Solitary Scribe" which has been played here, at the Hill Cumorah and a number of cities in Utah.

Airmail is quite the thing these days. We got a letter the other day that was written on the fifth of the month and the air mail sticker was stamped on the fourth. Wish we could get the Recorder out on a system like that.

(By Deb. Thompson)

On behalf of the Canadian Legion I would like to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation for the since they were organized last March Ladies Auxiliary who organized just one year ago. Their first meeting was held in the Town Hall March 31st, 1949, with 22 ladies present, and election of officers took place. Officers installed were President, Mary Thompson; First Vice, Helen Babb; Second Vice, Clayte Ralph; Treasurer, Mrs. Flo McKean and Secretary, Fern Thompson.

Since that date their membership has increased to over 40 and the way these ladies have been working, by next year they will probably have another 40 members. By May 9th, 1949, the Legion Hall had been completed to the extent that the ladies were able to make their way through nail kegs, planks and two-by-fours to hold their meeting in the basement. Several small projects were taken on by the members, but the first one of major importance was on the 1st and 2nd of July. With a lot of hard work from many ladies and the generosity of the townspeople, the Auxiliary was able to serve a very successful plate lunch. The proceeds from this and their other projects enabled them to purchase an electric range and other articles for the Hall's kitchen.

A month later the ladies voted to cater to the Rotarians' Monday dinners, making the Hall enjoyable to another club, as well as to Legion members. The ladies continued working busily at different projects such as pantry sale and luncheon in September, catering to the Vet's monthly supper meetings, including the November 11th banquet which will be long remembered by all those attending. As soon as funds were raised they were turned back into improvements for the Hall. The Auxiliary really put spirit into their work. Just before Xmas they had a candy-making bee, and 100 pounds of chocolates were made up in very short order and sold almost as speedily. Due to the epidemic of scarlet fever they were unable to hold their kiddies Xmas party, but if we know the Auxiliary, they will probably have one twice as good this Xmas to make up for it.

We probably haven't mentioned half of the things the ladies have done since they were organized last March but one look at the Hall will tell any Veteran why we appreciate the Ladies Auxiliary. A lot of our Legion members have said that we wouldn't have gone very far if it weren't for the Ladies Auxiliary. This is an understatement. As well as furnishing material to the Hall, to date they have turned over very close to a thousand dollars. They have contributed much needed enthusiasm to the Men's Branch. We could go on and on, but I think the simple phrase "Thank you, Ladies," will tell you what we are all thinking.

Ladies Auxiliary

Pies, pies and more pie. At least that's the only thing several members could see on Monday. One hundred apple pies were made by the Auxiliary to be served to the guests at the reception for Mr. Wing. Mary Thompson, Sally Hippard and Letty Litchfield spent the greater portion of the day working like beavers, assisted by Clayte Ralph, Maggie Jessop, Marj Vincent and Helen Babb. By the time they had rolled out the 100th crust Letty and Mary could roll it to the exact size of the plate to within 1—100th of an inch, while Sally was walking at right angles from having bent to peer into the oven so many times. Clayte now has a little love for apples as she had for potato salad last year. This was a big job ladies, and only experienced cooks could have made this quantity in such short order. In the evening a different group of women served the lunch which was enjoyed by all. Flo McKean and Val Attwood were in charge assisted by Edith Heninger, Elsie Evans, Marj Vincent, Clayte Ralph and Morna James. Two members of the Men's Legion, a little more experienced with bottle openers than the women, took over the serving of the cold drinks. Special thanks goes to the ladies who, tho' not Auxiliary members, assisted with the preparation and serving of this lunch.

Variety Program

A very fine "Variety Program" was held Tuesday evening in the Stake House under the direction of the Glee-ette Club with Gil Evans acting as M.C.

Mrs. Geneva Erickson led the Club in eight choruses, accompanied by Mrs. Rojana Bingham. These were interspersed by a variety of numbers. Herb Bishop sang followed by two Dutch singers from Lehighbridge, Nick and Jerry Davoe, who also played duets on their electric guitars.

A Hawaiian costume number was performed by Janet Turner, Mrs. Rita Walker, Betty Jo McLean and Mona Palmer. Mary Court's song was followed by a reading, "Waters of Minnetonka" by Mrs. Betty Evans; then a skit with Mrs. Annie Larsen, Wes McMullen and Alice Stevens participating. A novelty dance number was performed by the group followed by a recitation by little Cynthia Hague. A humorous number was portrayed by Mary Court, Laurie Harker, Vede Gilchrist and Maxine Dahl. An Easter parade with men dressed as ladies was next. Rex Erickson led a group of girls in a song as the closing number.

It proved to be one of the finest programs presented here for along time.

Fashion Parade

A "Tiny Tots Easter Parade" was held Wednesday in the Second Ward Hall with Mrs. Dora King and Mrs. Jolayne Hill in charge. Twenty-two pre-school children took part, modeling clothes their mothers had made for them.

They were placed on a large lily-decorated star, turned toward the front and then walked down through the spectators who were seated along the outside walls and at the luncheon tables.

The Psychology Club was held at the home of Mrs. Muriel Terry. Mrs. Delecta Sommerfeldt, the president, took charge and conducted the meeting with Mrs. Dorothy Dahl reading the minutes.

Mrs. Virginia Wilde read extracts from the talks given at the University of Utah, by Dr. and Mrs. John A. Widstoe, dealing with the "Word of Wisdom."

Besides the members, special guests were Mrs. Edith Gottengberg of Champion, Mrs. Mirra Peterson and Mrs. Leola Meeks.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostess.

UNTRUTHFULNESS

DO YOU EXAGGERATE and elaborate details? Bet you do! It is probable that no one tells the exact and unvarying truth at all times and under all circumstances. We sometimes evade and dissemble to save our pride, or the feelings of a friend, or will fib on the ground that it is "none of your business."

Physicians sometimes find misrepresentations concerning a patient's condition to be best. Diplomats and statesmen have to exercise fictitious sophistries and finesse, which is only a form of untruth.

BUT THE HYPOCRITE is a breathing untruth. Too much self-containedness and impenetrability leads to untruth. Dishonesty is untruth in action. Exaggeration due to a vivid imagination is an innocent form of untruth. When you find writing with a's and o's, etc., left open at the bottom, or closed at the top and tied shut in little words whose tails look like a tail of a snake, or letters made stencil pattern, or written deliberately obscure—there is a skeleton in the closet and a desire to "cover-up". Be on your guard and do not take too literally what is conveyed in the script. "The cruellest lies are often told in silence."

A little girl was given to spreading untrue stories about her playmates, a habit which caused many quarrels between the neighbors. Actually she meant no harm, and after every remand would say sorrowfully, "I take it all back." Ordinary punishment had no effect. In desperation, her Mother took a feather pillow outdoors and cut it open. "Now," said the Mother, "I want you to gather in all the feathers that fell out." "But that's impossible!" declared the little girl. "They've blown all over everywhere." "Exactly," Mother answered. "They are just like the lies you spread, once they are scattered there's no way of taking them back." So if you feel inclined to repeat rumors or gossip, remember the feathers.

Alberta oil has changed his future

The boy doesn't know it yet. Many a grown-up doesn't realize it—but the new oil fields of Alberta brighten Canada's future.

Western oil is saving 100 million scarce U.S. dollars this year, dollars we don't have to pay out for oil imports. This means money to buy other imports we need—things that cannot be grown or made in Canada. Next year Alberta oil should save 145 million U.S. dollars!

Then, too, the search for oil is making a big new market in Alberta for things the rest of Canada has to sell. The oil industry is spending $3 millions a week in the west. Across the nation this money is fostering new industries, expanding plants, creating jobs, paying wages, building homes.

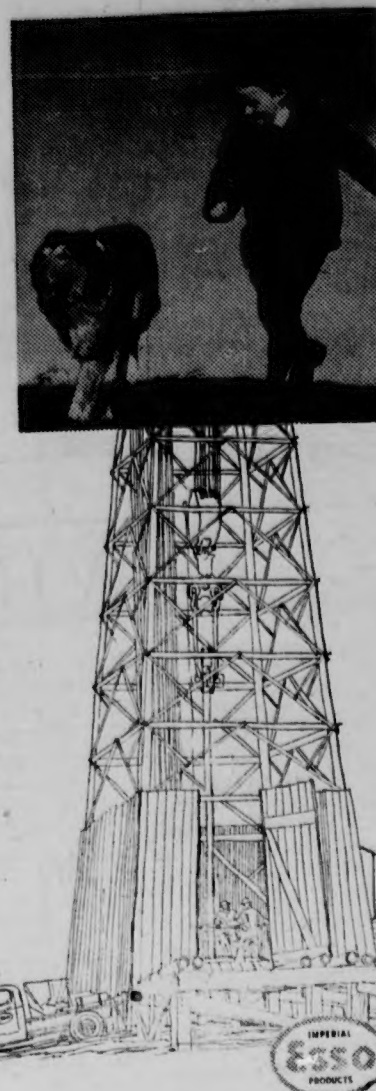

And in the prairies petroleum product prices are lower than they would have been if oil had not been found. Prairie consumers saved more than $30 millions last year. Anything that helps prairie prosperity helps all Canada.

Oil is important to us all. More oil means a higher standard of living. The search for oil is unending, a costly business, often disappointing. But the job is pressing forward. And new-found oil is changing our future . . . promising a better, brighter future for Canadians—man and boy alike!

L.D.S. Church Services

The Fourth Ward Sunday evening service was under the direction of the M.I.A. with Margaret Taylor taking charge. Musical numbers included a Junior girls chorus directed by Mrs. Velma Redd, a trio by Jean and Joan Holmes and Merle Judd, a chorus "Finlandia" also under the direction of Mrs. V. Redd, accompanied by Marolyn Taylor.

Shirley Allen gave the Scripture reading and Barbara Stone gave a short talk.

The main speaker of the evening was John Allen, a member of the Stake Presidency. His topic was "The Crosses People Bear".

The highlights of the First Ward service were the talks given by the Low twins from Cardston who recently returned from missions in New Zealand. They also sang in the Maori language.

present laboring in this field. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paxman spoke and Doral also expressed his appreciation for the opportunity of doing missionary work for the L.D.S. church. Howard Melchin, a member of the Bishopric also spoke.

The M.I.A. theme was the topic for the 3rd Ward Sunday night service with the Scout, Explorers, Junior Girls, Gleaners and M Men taking part. Bert Fairbanks and Keith Hancock, representing the Scouts and Explorers, gave interesting talks as did Hazel Fairbanks who represented the Gleaner Girls. The music for the evening, a mixed quartet and a Gleaner chorus was supplied by the M Men and Gleaner Girls.

Joan Salmon gave the Scripture reading and Pat Meeks led in reciting the Theme.

Garden Hints

The best place for the vegetable patch is where it will receive full sunlight. Digging in the fall is best, but it can be done in the spring just as soon as the ground is dry enough to work properly. A common mistake is to dig too deeply. The best part of the soil is generally the top-soil which the builder used when grading, and for this reason the spading should not exceed eight to ten inches, so that the better soil still remains on the top.

Well rotted manure is a great help in plant growth. Ready-mixed commercial fertilizer may also be used to advantage. Scatter over surface of the garden after digging, at the rate of 4 pounds per 100 square feet, and work into top soil with a rake. Avoid direct contact with roots or tops, it will cause burning of the young plants.

Rotary's Record

At the organization meeting at the association of American Rotary Clubs in 1910, a member of the San Francisco Club No. 2, predicted that within 80 years there would be 1,000 clubs. He was how'd down. After only 40 years there are only 6,978 clubs not only in the United States but all over the world.

Nelson Rockefeller said at the U.N.O. Conference at San Francisco that, "Rotary had done more on a voluntary basis for international goodwill than could be done by spending billions."

Youth Service

Youth today has greater freedom, exercises greater power, speaks more frankly and has more opportunities for both GOOD and EVIL than it has ever had. How important it is that these great possibilities for good be realized and developed.

Youth service is one of the most interesting and worthwhile fields of activity that can be undertaken by Rotary Clubs and Rotarians. The results are of inestimable value. Youth service is not merely the selection and the operation of a project or the formulation of a program for youth—it is the building of character and citizenship in the individual boy and girl through carefully selected and directed activities.

Local

A gratifying number of Rotarians was on hand at our weekly meeting April 3rd. It was pleasant to receive a card from Jim Meeks and to learn that he got in attendance at the Rotary Club of Rochester. It is reported that Jim is progressing famously and will soon be back with us.

President Stewart was again in the chair after having recently returned from vacationing on the west coast. He reported briefly to the club on his trip. Stewart thought the Curling Championships at Vancouver were very colorful and well worth attending. He got in attendance at two of the large clubs on the coast, one being Portland. He commented here, that he had always found fellowship much more prevalent in a small club such as ours than in the larger ones that he has visited.

During Stewart's absence the club voted him in as official delegate to the 171st District Conference being held in Winnipeg, May 7, 8 and 9. As a matter of fact, we understand that they are honoring Stewart by assigning him one of the official addresses to be given at the conference.

In as much as we are losing one of our valued members; Art King, the club voted to hold a farewell party for him Monday, April 17th. Heber, Lee and Myron were delegated to arrange details. Art, who has served as President of our club, is being transferred to Oids, taking over the manager's position in the B of M there. He has been an active member and we hate to lose him. However, our sincere good wishes and congratulations go with him to his new appointment.

Until next week, this is your Rote Reporter who feels that though Private Enterprise might skin some of us; State-controlled enterprise would skin all of us.

A costume farewell party in honor of Miss Helen Dziwenko, who has been employed at the Municipal Hospital, was held recently at the home of Mrs. Alice Court. The guests arrived dressed as children. An enjoyable evening was spent dancing and playing games. Following a delicious lunch a pair of lovely scatter pins was presented to Miss Dziwenko on behalf of those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Halliday entertained the "Sunday Night" club last week. Although there was no session the next general meeting will be held the second Monday in May, with an executive meeting on the first Monday.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostess.

The Special Interest class of the Raymond First Ward had Mrs. Sachl as their guest. She gave a very Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dahl and most interesting and instructive discourse on her extensive trip to Japan.

Calgary visitors over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dahl and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dahl.

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fairbanks left Wednesday morning on a business trip to Calgary.

Elders Richard Sisam and Dale Peck were recent visitors here, being guests of Gladys Holt. They stopped here on their way home to Salt Lake City. They were all missionaries in the Eastern Canadian Mission.

While in Raymond the young men spoke at the Third Ward M.I.A. and later at a gathering at Miss Holt's home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Card and Mr. Sterling Williams, of Cardston, were guests of the Fourth Ward Sunday School. Mr. Card came to Raymond to tell the life history of his father, Charles Ora Card who was a great pioneer of this country.

Misses Helen Dziwenko and Agnes Petrak were week-end visitors in Great Falls. Upon their return Miss Dziwenko will continue on to Edmonton.

The Academy Award winner for the 1949 season was Olivia DeHavilland in the production "The Heiress". This fine motion picture is now playing for this week-end at Brewerton's Capitol.

Mr. John Horvath presented the champion girls basket ball team with a large box of chocolates.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Wright of Rosemary were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snow.

Mrs. Arlidge Hill and two children spent the week in Taber with her parents.

Mr. Wallace Wilde celebrated his birthday by entertaining a group of friends recently. Four tables of Rook were in play with high score going to Mrs. Beth Galbraith and Ted Meeks. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Balderson of Magrath were out-of-town guests.

A farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bascom and daughter was held April 1st at the home of Mrs. Alice Court. Friends present enjoyed an evening of games and singing. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Bette Greep and Mary Court. The honored guests, accompanied by Mary and Hugh Court motored to Salt Lake where they plan to meet Bill Bascom and continue on to California.

Due to the length of articles already set the story of the girls championship basket ball games with the Edmonton Victorias will be held over until next week. The Raymond High School girls' team, the "Hell Cats", won the cup with a score of 57 to 39. Good thing they won so we can have at least one cup in this part of the country.
